

BIOGRAPHY— ANDREW NICHOLS, PH.D., PE

- Traffic Engineering Manager, Dennis Corporation.
- Registered Professional Engineer; SC, WV and GA
- 2000 West Virginia University Graduate: Bachelors of Science, Civil Engineering.
- 2001 Purdue University Graduate: Masters of Science, Civil Engineering.
- 2004 Purdue University Graduate: Ph.D. in Civil Engineering.
- Father to son Joshua.
- Husband to Kristin Nichols
- Assistant Professor of Engineering at Marshall University.
- Conducts traffic engineering research with the Nick J. Rahall Appalachian Transportation Institute.
- Enjoys hunting, fishing, golf, racquetball, and ultimate frisbee.
- Member of the following organizations: Institute of Transportation Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, Transportation Research Board, American Society of Testing and Materials.
- Aspires to build the reputation and expertise of Dennis Corporation in the area of Traffic Engineering and increase the visibility and involvement of the West Virginia office in the Appalachian region, and to improve the quality, safety, and performance of its transportation system.