

BIOGRAPHY - MONICA SCOTT

- Director of Marketing, Dennis Corporation.
- 2006 Graduate of Newberry College; Bachelors of Arts in Art with a Concentration in Graphic Design.
- Daughter of Rev. Dr. Mark A. Scott and Karen G. Scott who reside in Newberry, SC.
- Sister to Elise Scott, a worker's compensation/personal injury attorney in Columbia, SC, and Anna Scott Magann, a litigation attorney in Myrtle Beach, SC.
- Member of Board of Directors, Family Connection of South Carolina; serves on Annual Benefit Committee and Marketing Committee.
- Member of the Associate Board for Pawmetto Lifeline (formerly Project Pet).
- Newberry College Women's League Member; serves on the Executive Board and Projects Committee.
- Co-Chairperson for the Greater Blythewood Chamber of Commerce's Events Committee.
- Election Stringer for the Associated Press in Newberry County.
- Volunteer for Lutheran Hospice and Pawmetto Lifeline.
- Member of Saint Andrews Lutheran Church; serves on Stewardship Committee; member of Handbell Choir.
- Committee Member for the Young Adult Movement for the South Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.
- 2010 Participant in the South Carolina Arts Commission's New Audience Road Show.
- United States Green Building Council Member.
- Coastal Conservation Association Member.
- Enjoys art, volunteering, traveling, decorating, cooking, fruit and vegetable carving, and spending time with family, friends and her dog, a Pug/Chihuahua mix named Gus.
- Aspires for Dennis Corporation's marketing division to become a leader in engineering marketing and to set the standard for marketing within the industry.