

BIOGRAPHY - RAULSTON L. TRAVIS, PE

- Manager of Expert Witness Services and International and Aviation Services for Dennis Corporation.
- Registered Professional Engineer in SC, GA, MS, TX, AZ, NV, UT, MD, and NJ.
- 1991 University of Tennessee, School of Architecture Graduate: Bachelor of Architecture.
- 1992 University of Tennessee Graduate: Master of Science in Civil Engineering.
- Husband to Alice M. Travis, PE, a Federal Highway Administration Highway Engineer.
- Father of Allison L. Travis and Seth A. Travis.
- Enjoys camping, sports, and spending time with family.
- Member of Mt. Horeb United Methodist Church in Lexington.
- Sunday School Teacher for Walking in Faith Adult Sunday School class at Mt. Horeb United Methodist Church.
- Member of Administrative Board at Mt. Horeb United Methodist Church.
- Past member of Playground Committee at Mt. Horeb United Methodist Church and was responsible for design, selection and installation of two children's playgrounds.
- Coach for youth athletics including baseball and softball.
- Contributor and past Sponsor for Family Connections of South Carolina.
- Past Member of Board of Directors for International Association of Airport Executives.
- Past Member of ACEC International Affairs Committee.
- Presenter at 1993 Transportation Research Board Annual Meeting.
- Published in Transportation Research Journal of the U.S. Department of Transportation.
- Guest speaker at international and aviation conferences in Columbia, SC; Charleston, SC; Jackson, MS; New Orleans, LA; Washington, DC; Istanbul, Turkey; Lima, Peru; Milan, Italy; Salzburg, Austria; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and Sun City, South Africa.
- Keynote speaker at "Opportunities in China" conference in Columbia, SC.
- Managed projects in 60+ countries around the world.
- Traveled extensively throughout the world including visits to 48 countries on 5 continents and two "around the world" trips.
- Aspires to expand Dennis Corporation to the international market for transportation consulting services and further expand the Expert Witness services of the firm.