

DENNIS CORPORATION SPONSORS USC ENGINEERING ALUMNI EVENT

February 18, 2010

Columbia, SC - Recently, Dennis Corporation was the corporate sponsor for the USC Engineering Alumni event welcoming the new chairman of the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department, Dr. Robert Mullen. The gathering was held at the Swearingen Engineering Building at the University of South Carolina on February 16th at 6 PM.

This event was a networking opportunity for USC College of Engineering and Computing alumni. Attendees of the event included: interim dean of the USC College of Engineering and Computing, Dr. Harry Ploehn, Dr. Robert Mullen, chairman of the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department at USC, other Engineering faculty and staff, Engineering School alumni and many Dennis Corporation employees who were graduates of USC and the Engineering School.

Dennis Corporation's Water Resources Manager, Ms. Beth Kelly, who attended said, "As a fellow USC engineering alumna, it is great to see Dennis Corporation's continuous support of the USC Engineering School. Our employee base has many USC alumni and students and we have partnerships with various engineering student groups and organizations to serve as an advisory counsel when the need arises. We were proud to sponsor this event which provided an excellent opportunity to network with local USC alumni and support to the Engineering Department at USC."

Dennis Corporation is a South Carolina licensed civil engineering, surveying and construction management firm. Dennis Corporation's specific fields of expertise include aviation engineering, civil infrastructure, construction management, construction services, environmental services, expert witness, intelligent transportation systems, program management, special projects, surveying, traffic engineering, transportation engineering and water resources.
