

DENNIS CORPORATION HOSTS GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE GRESHAM BARRETT

May 27, 2010

Columbia, SC - Dennis Corporation hosted an event for gubernatorial candidate, Congressman Gresham Barrett, at their Corporate Headquarters in Columbia on May 25th at 5pm.

During the event, Dennis Corporation presented Congressman Barrett with a certificate of appreciation from fellow Citadel alumni, Lieutenant Colonel James Lechner. Lechner is currently stationed in Afghanistan and is appreciative of Barrett's continuous support of American troops. After the presentation, Congressman Barrett delivered a campaign speech and hosted a question and answer session for those in attendance.

In attendance at the event were Dennis Corporation employees and their family members, political supporters, local Columbia community members, clients, and friends. Additionally, Mrs. Beth Lechner, the wife of Lieutenant Colonel James Lechner, also came to show her support and witness the award presentation.

Dennis Corporation is not primarily a Republican or Democratic supporter, but rather an advocate for the citizens of South Carolina. As a result, the firm chooses to align themselves with worthy candidates whose ideals match up with the objective of progressing the economic development of South Carolina and its citizens. Congressman Barrett shares a high level of commitment to South Carolina which made Dennis Corporation happy to support him by hosting an event for his campaign.
