To commemorate its success, Dennis Corporation hosted a Grand Opening and 5th Anniversary Celebration Event in May at their new headquarters. Dennis Corporation Special Inspections Manager, Andy Wessinger, said, "Our fifth anniversary celebration was a real eye opener for myself and many other career minded professionals here at Dennis Corporation. Being one of the first on staff for our company I have had a wonderful opportunity to watch this firm serve its clients with true passion, honesty and integrity, which is what I believe has been the key to our success thus far. We are all so close and know each other on a first name basis as well. To have a career at a place where each individual plays an important roll is one of our many achievements at Dennis Corporation.
